

N2V

IEP Preparation & Parent Strategy Kit

Walk into your IEP meeting prepared, clear, and in control

How to Use: Complete this before your IEP meeting and bring it with you. Use it to anchor the conversation and advocate effectively.

1. General Information

Child's Full Name

Preferred Name

Date of Birth

Grade Level

Languages Spoken at Home

Cultural background or context to consider

2. Interests & Preferences

Activities your child enjoys

Favorite books, shows, or games

Topics they're naturally curious about

Hobbies or extracurricular activities

Preferred learning environment

- ☐ Quiet
 - ☐ Active
 - ☐ Independent
 - ☐ Group-based
 - ☐ Structured
 - ☐ Flexible
-

3. Learning & Cognitive Profile

Areas where your child excels

Preferred learning style

- ☐ Visual
- ☐ Hands-on
- ☐ Verbal
- ☐ Repetition-based

How they respond to new challenges

Reading/Writing preferences

Areas where they struggle (be specific)

4. Physical Profile

Health considerations or conditions

Physical activities they participate in

Coordination or motor skill observations

Any accommodations needed

5. Social & Emotional Profile

How your child interacts with peers

How they communicate with adults

How they handle frustration or conflict

What helps them feel emotionally safe

Social situations they find difficult

6. Motivation & Independence

What motivates your child most

- ■ Praise
- ■ Rewards
- ■ Independence
- ■ Achievement
- ■ Interest-driven

Level of independence with tasks

Response to feedback or correction

Tools, routines, or strategies that help focus

7. Home Support

Who supports learning at home

Resources or support needed from school

Anything important for the school to know

8. Goals & Additional Notes

Special talents or strengths

Goals for this school year

Additional notes or concerns

Final Reminder:

- You know your child better than anyone
- You are a partner in this process
- You are allowed to ask questions and request clarity
- You do not need to agree immediately—take time if needed